

CONVERSATIONS WITH MARGIE GILLIS

CELEBRATING 50 YEARS OF DANCE

This event focuses on renewing ties between Margie Gillis and her loyal public.

For the 2022-23 & 2023-24 seasons, following the performance of Literature of the Body, audience members will be invited to engage in a rich, in depth discussion with the Artist.

50 years of career amounts to 100 cities visited across Canada and the U.S: communities which Margie Gillis has deeply touched and left an ineffaceable mark.

OFFER

To reunite Margie with her fans and followers, and to provide a new generation of dance-lovers the opportunity to exchange with a true dance legend.

WHAT TO EXPECT

- A live discussion with Margie Gillis & moderator, which will focus on her history and artistic process, as well as painting a broad portrait of the company's activities, past & future.
- Clips of exclusive archival footage.
- Q&A from the audience.

BIOGRAPHY

Internationally acclaimed dance artist, Margie Gillis is one of the most influential Canadian choreographers/dancers of the 20th and 21st centuries.
